

CMC³ Mini Program

Please visit the CMC3 website often for up-to-date information about pre- & post-conference publisher activities.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2009

Registration: 5:30 – 6:45 p.m. in the Portola Hotel & Spa Lobby

Reception: Bonsai Room 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Keynote Speaker: Paul Nahin, University of New Hampshire

Presents: When Readers Help the Author

*An assortment of desserts will be enjoyed at the reception.
Those not attending the dessert reception are welcome to attend the talk, approximately 8:00 p.m.*

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2009

Look for the Estimation Walk/Run on Saturday Morning!
Meet at 7:30 a.m. in the Hotel Lobby

Registration in Exhibit Area: 8:15 - 9:30 a.m.

First Session: 9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

John Martin: Santa Rosa Junior College "Gold Rush! Discovering the Golden Ratio"	Stefan Baratto: Clackamas Community College "Content in Context: Teaching Mathematics Students with Real-World Applications"
Mary Anne Anthony: Santa Ana College "Linking Literacy to Numeracy"	Roy Simpson: Consumnes River College "The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly: An Online Homework System Comparison"
Bruce Yoshiwara: LA Pierce College "MathDL: Resources for Students, Teachers, and Other Lovers of Math"	Paul Velleman: Cornell University "Truth, Damn Truth, and Statistics"
Mark Turner: Cuesta College "A New Twist on Trigonometric Graphs"

Second Session: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

John Leamy: Columbia College "The Ubiquitous Triangular Numbers"	Lisa Lee: Coastline Community College "Teaching Quantitative Analysis with Modern Technology"
Jay Lehmann: College of San Mateo "Don't Believe Everything You Hear"	Allan Rossman: Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo "Introducing Statistical Inference with Randomization Tests"
Joan Cordova: Orange Coast College Tom Carey: CSU Chancellor's Office "Regional Faculty Collaboration for Course Transformation"	David Dudley and Patricia Dueck: Scottsdale Community College "Monumental Projects for Differential Equations"
Trey Cox: Chandler-Gilbert Community College "Professional Learning Communities for Teachers"

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2009 (Continued)

Luncheon (Italian Buffet): 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. in the Atrium

General Session: 1:00-2:15 p.m. in De Anza 3

CMC³ Announcements and Awards

Keynote Speaker: Judith Gabriner, Pitzer College

Presents: *Why Should Historical Truth Matter to Teachers of Mathematics?
Dispelling Myths While Promoting Math

Third Session: 2:30 – 3:30 p.m.

Hubert Ludwig: Ball State University, emeritus "Mathematics in Contemporary Culture"	Anne Dudley: Glendale Community College "Linear Algebra Projects and Activities"
Justine Wong: National Hispanic University "Learning Mathematics in the Flat World"	Bruce Cooperstein: UC Santa Cruz "MathPods"
Molly O'Neil: Daytona State College "Using Supplements to Prepare Students for Class"	William Lepowsky: Laney College "Seesaw Charts and Triangle Grids: Confidence Intervals and Hypothesis Testing Like You've Never Seen Before!"
John Coburn: St. Louis Community College "Trigonometric Curiosities"

Fourth Session: 4:00 – 5:00 p.m.

John Hornsby: University of New Orleans, emeritus "One Hundred Years of College Algebra"	Scott Adamson: Chandler-Gilbert Community College "Linear Functions, Models, and Regression in the Real, Real World"
Lynn Marecek: Santa Ana College "Integrating Math Study Skills into Developmental Math"	Diane Whitfield: Portland Community College "Exploring Graphs, Transformations and Domain"
Wade Ellis: West Valley College, emeritus Barbara Pence: San Jose State University "K-12 Mathematics Teaching"	Leonard Wapner: El Camino College "Unexpected Expectations"

Reception and prizes in the Exhibit Area: 5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Join us for this celebration. There will be food, drawings and our annual Foundation prizes!